

Cream Parlor will sate your craving for nostalgic comfort food.
LEFT: Bohemian hangout Nina's House.

ver tequila, (maraschino), in Richard local music h Saturday. e., Miami -1234

COME

artz is at it the James winner is stronomic n cooking ars," he says. econd i and ad, Schwartz gionally in the form ade, puttant tonnato, and a tableside Caesar with croutons made to order.

1300 S. Miami Ave., Miami, 305-912-1729; sbe.com

SUGAR RUSH: CREAM PARLOR

Sometimes you just need home-churned ice cream, cookies from scratch, and baked sweets like Grandma used to make. Say hello to Cream Parlor, a nostalgic comfort eatery and creamery dishing out tuna melt tartines, iced Nutella lattes, and insane ice cream and red velvet white chocolate cookie sandwiches. You can start working on that New Year's resolution tomorrow...
8224 Biscayne Blvd., Miami, 786-534-4180; creamparlor.com ■

Wood-grilled chicken with savory bread pudding, mustard greens, pine nuts, and currants at Michael Schwartz's Fi'lia.